Posted by Kels | Posted in Uncategorized | Posted on October 25, 2010

We mentioned the new Ritz-Carlton, Los Angeles when it opened earlier this year. The hotel is part of the L.A. Live complex which has quickly become a vibrant part of downtown Los Angeles. The hotel is upping its glam quotient through bringing on its own call personal stylist and fashion consultant, Aly Scott of StyleChic, who has also designed two packages for the hotel. Scott, who has worked with stars including Scarlett

Johansson, Dave Matthews and Jane Seymour and was an Associate Publisher for six high profile fashion magazines, now offers custom shopping experiences for the fashion focused. StyleChic guests enjoy experiences including a champagne welcome in the VIP terrace lounge at Tods on Rodeo Drive, a private white glove atelier service appointment with a high fashion fine jeweler, lunch at The Ivy in West Hollywood, shopping the back racks of an appointment only vintage boutique in the heart of Hollywood and the service of a Town car at the ready for zipping around town.

Scott has designed two experiences especially for the Ritz-Carlton, Los Angeles. The Red Carpet getaway includes two nights deluxe overnight accommodations at The Ritz-Carlton, Los Angeles with Club Lounge access. Enjoy dinner for two at chef Wolfgang Puck's award-winning WP24 Restaurant & Lounge. A pre-arrival consultation with Aly Scott will aid in the creation of a six-hour customized StyleChic experience. The package also includes a choice of either a $ 100 Spa Credit or 60 minute personal training session.
