

Lindsay's little sister's STEALING

THEY WEAR IDENTICAL OUTFITS!

"Ali needs to find a distinctive style of her own if she wants to stand out," says celeb stylist Aly Scott of stylechicla.com.

She's only 14, but Ali Lohan looks just like her 21-year-old big sister, Lindsay! Of course, her copycat ways aren't all that surprising, considering how much she idolizes her older sibling despite her personal problems. "I've been following in Lindsay's footsteps since I was very young," says Ali. "She's my role model — I try to look like her, dress like her, everything," she revealed on her new reality show, Living Lohan. As in love with the spotlight as her older sis was before her, Ali is recording an album. She also just landed her first major film role in Mostly Ghostly, in which she plays a character like the one Lindsay portrayed in her breakout film, Mean Girls.

But will Ali's adoration cause her to inherit her sister's problems, too? "It's very normal for a younger sister to emulate an older one," explains psychologist Dr. Catherine Cardinal, who doesn't treat the Lohans. "Ali copying Lindsay's style doesn't necessarily mean she will adopt her lifestyle," adds Dr. Cardinal, "but she needs a role model other than Lindsay or she may end up going down the same road."
